

PASTORS CORNER

There are quite a few BIG ideas that we find in Scripture. These are big commitment things. Things that require us to suffer for the sake of Christ and others, to the glory of God in our lives. Not to suffer a little bit or endure for a moment, but to be willing to die to ourselves daily so that others can see the Gospel in us and hear the Gospel from us; so that we can love and forgive the way we have been loved and forgiven in Christ. While you are waiting for the service to start this morning, or when you get home today look up these passages: Luke 9:23-26; Philippians 1:1-24, 2:1-8, 3:7-8; Acts 20:24; Galatians 2:20. Read these words from God and ask how they might apply to your walk with Christ, your relationship with your church family, and to the lost world around us. If we are going to be a tool for revival in this day and culture we will need to be devoted to personal and corporate study, prayer, fellowship and service with an unmitigated desire to walk in the big ideas of God's heart. Only in as much as we devote ourselves to these things will we be effective for the Kingdom of God.
